Speaker Bios:

Joshua Fox is a partner in the Corporate Practice Group, and a member of the Emerging Company and Life Sciences Groups. He joined the firm in 2001. Mr. Fox provides advice to public and private companies with respect to venture capital financings, mergers and acquisitions, public offerings, securities law compliance and general corporate matters. As a member of the Emerging Company Practice Group, Mr. Fox represents early-stage companies and provides advice to these companies in the areas of incorporation and start-up, seed financings, venture capital transactions and mergers and acquisitions.

Laura Schneider is a partner in the firm’s Labor and Employment Practice Group, Immigration Group and FinTech Group. She joined the firm in 1992. Ms. Schneider’s practice focuses on all aspects of labor and employment law. She represents employers before state and federal courts and government agencies in a wide range of litigation matters, including those involving discrimination and harassment, contractual disputes, unfair competition, ERISA, and wage and hour claims. She also counsels clients on employment law compliance issues, personnel policies, employee relations and performance management. Additionally, Ms. Schneider consults on immigration matters in connection with workforce composition and transactions.
